SENATE

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1939

(Legislative day of Monday, October 2, 1939)

The Senate met at 12 o'clock meridian, on the expiration of the recess.

The Chaplain, Rev. Z. Barney T. Phillips, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Eternal and Unchangeable God, who, in the time of shadow and darkness, canst be our only true and lasting light, in whom alone we find rest for our weariness and comfort for our sorrow: Look upon us with Thy mercy, and give unto us the spirit of understanding promised by Thy dear Son as we pause in reverence to pay loving tribute to him who but yesterday was in our midst serving his country and his God with pure heart and unfeigned lips. Receive him, dear Lord, unto Thyself, and grant that he may go from strength to strength in that life of perfect service which it is Thine to give.

Enfold in Thine everlasting arms the loved ones who remain; and may the influence of this true disciple of the Holy and merciful Saviour abide with us in all our deliberations, enabling us the better to find God in our duty and in the range and richness and mastery of our own powers. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

APPEARANCE OF A SENATOR

Mr. MEAD, a Senator from the State of New York, appeared in his seat today.

THE JOURNAL

On request of Mr. BARKLEY, and by unanimous consent, the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of the calendar day of Monday, October 2, 1939, was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

DEATH OF SENATOR LOGAN, OF KENTUCKY

Mr. BARKLEY. Mr. President, we have all been profoundly shocked today by the news of the sudden death of my late colleague, Senator LOGAN. By the death of Senator LOGAN the Senate of the United States is deprived of the services of one of the most conscientious, sincere, hard-working, and loyal men who ever graced this body with his membership.

I have known Senator LOGAN practically all my life. He was assistant attorney general of Kentucky, he was attorney general of Kentucky, he was chairman of the newly organized tax commission at the time the State legislature created a tax commission. He was a member of our highest court—the court of appeals—and was chief justice of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky at the time he resigned to become a Member of the United States Senate. Whether in public or in private life, whether in his fraternal relationships, which were Nation-wide, or in his association with us here in committees and on the floor, I believe I can say of him as justly as was ever said of any man that he was, in truth, a Christian statesman.

For more than 30 years, notwithstanding his arduous duties as a Member of this great body, Senator LOGAN taught a Bible class wherever he found himself on the Sabbath. Nothing could cause him to depart from his routine of Christian life. I mourn him as a statesman and as a Kentuckian; I deplore his loss as a devoted, lifelong friend.

At a later date I will request the Senate to afford an opportunity for more elaborate expression with respect to his public life and private character. For the time being I offer the resolution which I send to the desk and ask unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The resolution will be read.

The resolution (S. Res. 190) was read, considered by unanimous consent, and unanimously agreed to, as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with profound sorrow and deep regret the announcement of the death of Hon. M. M. LOGAN, late a Senator from the State of Kentucky.

Resolved, That a committee of nine Senators be appointed by the Vice President to take order for superintending the funeral of the deceased Senator.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate these resolutions to the House of Representatives and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The VICE PRESIDENT subsequently, under the second resolving clause, appointed the following Senators to take order for superintending the funeral of the deceased Senator: Mr. BARKLEY, Mr. ASHURST, Mr. McKELLAR, Mr. FRAZIER, Mr. AUSTIN, Mr. BURKE, Mr. MINTON, Mr. TRUMAN, and Mr. MILLER.

Mr. BARKLEY. As a further mark of respect to the memory of my deceased colleague, I move that the Senate do now adjourn.

The motion was unanimously agreed to; and (at 12 o'clock and 5 minutes p. m.) the Senate adjourned until tomorrow, Wednesday, October 4, 1939, at 12 o'clock meridian.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1939

The Chaplain, Rev. Z. Barney T. Phillips, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ, whose infinite humanity and sublime heroism were securely centered in the austere benignity of Thy will: Give to these, Thy servants, composure in this hour of the world's peril, and may each one keep his heart with all diligence, knowing that out of it are the issues of life, for Thy supreme gift is a loving human heart, the spirit of understanding, which can carry us up to the heights, down to the depths, even abroad as wide as morning from evening. Take us, we beseech Thee, at this moment of dedication to the secret place of the Most High, where, like the prophets of old, we may hear Thy voice and, coming forth from thence, may boldly proclaim the great moral and spiritual imperatives, only by laying hold of which our disillusioned world can be brought back to righteousness, justice, and peace. We ask it in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour. Amen.
